The Building

Step into luxury with this elegant and beautifully presented first-floor apartment, set within the prestigious Dean Clarke House – a stunning Grade II Listed building steeped in history, once home to the Devon & Exeter Hospital, dating back to 1743. Situated in the heart of Exeter's desirable Southernhay district, this exquisite residence offers a rare blend of period grandeur and contemporary comfort.

Accommodation

A grand communal entrance with concierge service sets the tone for this exceptional home. Accessed via lift or stairs, the apartment opens into a welcoming hallway with useful storage. The magnificent open-plan living/dining room boasts an impressive bay of original sash windows, flooding the space with light and showcasing the remarkable high ceilings. A stylish glass balustrade leads to a versatile mezzanine level – ideal for a study or reading area.

The high-spec kitchen is fitted with hand-finished German cabinetry, sleek Silestone worktops and a suite of premium appliances, including oven, microwave, induction hob, wine cooler, dishwasher, washer/dryer, and a Quooker tap for instant boiling water.

The principal bedroom benefits from a dedicated dressing area with fitted wardrobes and a luxurious en-suite shower room. The second double bedroom is light and airy, while the contemporary family bathroom features a freestanding bath and chic vanity unit.

Outside

Residents enjoy beautifully maintained communal gardens with seating areas and vibrant planting, alongside a secure gated car park with allocated space, EV charging point, and private lockable storage.
