Location

Ashmead Chambers are situated on the west side of Regent Street which leads from Clumber Street in the north to Westgate and the Market Place in the south. Regent Street is pedestrianised and is one of the principal shopping thoroughfares in the town .

Mansfield serves a catchment population of approx. 100,000 and provides a wide range of facilities including excellent shops, and markets, and has regular bus & train services to Nottingham and Worksop which are some 14 and 13 miles away respectively.

The town serves as the regional centre for north west Nottinghamshire and has excellent road access via the A38 and the A617 to Junctions 28 & 29 of the M1 Motorway which are both approx. 8 miles distance.

Description

Ashmead Chambers comprises first, second and third floor offices above the side entrance to Marks and Spencers, the Mark Leeson hair salon, British Heart Foundations, Xtra Care Charitable Trust and Petscene, next to the head office of Mansfield Building Society.

The offices were occupied by HMRC for many years and for the last nine years have been occupied by West Notts. College as a hair and beauty academy.

Some of the offices have central heating and air conditioning.
