This charming Warner-built, semi-detached family home occupies a generous plot on Crealock Grove, within the highly sought-after Highams Estate. Ideally located, it offers easy access to both Highams Park Overground Station and Woodford Central Line Station, providing excellent transport links.

From the moment you arrive, the property’s classic 1930s-style frontage exudes character, featuring a driveway, front garden, and a detached garage. Inside, a spacious entrance hallway with built-in storage welcomes you. The ground floor offers a well-proportioned lounge, a separate dining room, and a fitted kitchen, all with convenient access to the expansive rear garden.

Upstairs, you’ll find four well-sized bedrooms and a three-piece family bathroom. The property also holds excellent potential for further development, with scope to extend into the loft, to the rear, and to the side—subject to the necessary planning permissions.

The true highlight of this home is the south-west facing garden, perfect for al fresco dining, entertaining, or simply enjoying family gatherings. The garden features a patio area with ample space for outdoor furniture and sun loungers, while the rest of the garden is laid to lawn, surrounded by mature shrub borders. Additionally, solar panels on the rear of the property and garage offer an eco-friendly advantage.

Offered chain free.

Built by renowned developer Sir Thomas Warner in the 1930s, the Highams Estate is a prestigious residential area that offers a perfect blend of local amenities and green spaces. Nearby High Road is home to popular cafés, restaurants, and shops. Both Woodford Central Line and Highams Park stations are within easy reach, making this location ideal for commuters. For families, the property is close to a selection of outstanding schools, including the highly regarded Woodford County High School for Girls, Bancroft’s, and an array of exceedingly good schools.

Surrounded by leafy open spaces, including Epping

Forest just a short walk away, this home offers an ideal setting for family life, with plenty of outdoor activities on your doorstep. Don’t miss the opportunity to make this beautiful property your family’s next home.
