This impressive home is arranged over three floors and has been sympathetically extended to the rear and into the loft, creating a superb balance of reception space and bedrooms. The heart of the home is the stunning open-plan kitchen, dining and living space – finished to a high specification with a feature open fireplace and elegant heritage patio doors opening directly onto the beautifully landscaped rear garden. A separate utility room adds practicality, while the spacious entrance hall and cloakroom create a welcoming first impression. The formal reception room boasts a large bay window, original fireplace, and restored cornicing and coving – a perfect retreat for entertaining or quiet evenings.

The first floor offers four well-proportioned bedrooms served by a luxurious family bathroom, while the second floor (formerly the loft) provides two further bedrooms and a chic additional shower room – ideal for guests or older children seeking privacy. Throughout, the owners have worked tirelessly to retain and enhance the home’s Edwardian character, from the soaring ceilings and restored leaded windows to the original fireplaces and intricate period detailing. Externally, the property benefits from a driveway for multiple vehicles, side access, and a substantial rear garden designed for both family life and entertaining.

Monkams Avenue is widely regarded as one of Woodford’s most desirable addresses, offering tree-lined tranquillity while being just a short stroll from Woodford station. Families are drawn to the area for its outstanding schooling options, including Woodford Green Preparatory School and Bancroft’s School, both within walking distance. The Broadway provides an excellent selection of boutique shops, cafés, and restaurants, while Epping Forest is nearby for weekend walks and outdoor adventures – making this a perfect location for those seeking a premium family home with excellent connectivity and lifestyle benefits.
