51 Chingford Lane, Woodford Green IG8 9QT

Spacious two double bedroom Ex-Warner maisonette ideally located on Chingford Lane, within easy reach of Woodford and Highams Park stations. Featuring a bright lounge/diner, modern fitted kitchen/bathroom and private entrance.

Council Tax Band: C

Situated on the sought-after Chingford Lane, this excellent first-floor Ex-Warner maisonette offers generous accommodation and period charm, ideally located within walking distance of Highams Park and Woodford stations.

The property features its own private entrance and comprises a spacious lounge/dining room, a fitted kitchen with access to a small balcony, two double bedrooms with high ceilings, and a large, modern shower room. Beautifully balanced proportions, large windows and classic Warner-style design give the home a bright and airy feel throughout. The property is further complemented by gas central heating, double glazing, and attractive neutral décor.

With an internal floor area of approximately 743 sq ft (69 sq m), this maisonette offers an excellent sense of space.

Perfectly positioned between Woodford Green and Highams Park, the property enjoys easy access to a range of local amenities, independent cafés, restaurants, and shops along The Broadway and High Road Woodford Green.

Transport connections are excellent — both Woodford Station (Central Line) and Highams Park Station (Overground) are within walking distance, providing direct services into Liverpool Street, Stratford, and central London. For motorists, the North Circular (A406) and M11 are close by, offering convenient links to the City, M25, and surrounding areas.

The area is also popular for its green spaces, with Epping Forest and Highams Park Lake all nearby, offering beautiful walking routes and leisure options. Local schools enjoy strong reputations, making the location equally appealing to professionals, couples, and families alike.
