Freehold

A charming terraced Victorian cottage full of character in the heart of Charlotteville between Pewley Down and the Upper High street, featuring a cleverly converted loft space which was completed in 2015. The property is currently using all four bedrooms over two floors but could easily have one bedroom converted to a bathroom or ensuite. There are two separate reception rooms with fireplaces and a log burning stove in the dining room that adjoins a galley style kitchen with side return potential, subject to consents. Currently the spacious bathroom is on the ground floor with a modern suite and tiling but offers enormous future potential for relocating if less bedrooms are required. The property has been double glazed with timber hard wood sash windows to the front and UPVC wood grain effect windows to the side and rear. The heating is powered by a modern combination boiler. Outside, the tranquil lawned garden is a lovely feature which incorporates an attractive seating/dining area and shed. An outside store cupboard also offers further storage.
