£950,000

Freehold

A family home of great character and atmosphere in the heart of the highly sought after Onslow Village that dates from 1926 with later additions. The property has been cleverly extended with accommodation now comprising of five bedrooms, two bathrooms and a lovely sized bayed sitting room and well equipped kitchen/dining space. In addition a good sized study, cloakroom and large utility space can also be found to the ground floor. There are two working log burners, double glazing, gas central heating to radiators and a pressurised hot water system. One of the nicest features is the large picture bay window to the sitting room enjoying an elevated view across gardens and the village to The Mount. The garden faces south east and is a great size being gently sloping with a large lawn, trees and a raised terrace. Summer evening sun is found at the rear patio in a peaceful quiet spot. There is plenty of driveway parking to the front on a tarmac drive, side access and a garage/store that is now reduced in size with the addition of the utility room.
