Informal tender £575,000
Freehold

A bay fronted Victorian halls adjoining semi detached house in the heart of Guildford, featuring a west facing garden and huge potential. Being over 1300 sq ft this well balanced home features large rooms, notably in the living space and main bedroom. There is considerable opportunity to enlarge and remodel the kitchen with an extension subject to approval, which would transform this character home. Features include fireplaces, original wooden floors, and a more recent herringbone oak floor to much of the ground floor that flows between the reception rooms. Both the kitchen and bathroom require attention but the price does reflect this. There is a spacious basement with good head height which has been converted in the past and includes a large light well with a double glazed lantern roof. Other improvements include a recently installed boiler for the gas central heating and domestic hot water. Outside, the private garden is west facing with mature shrubs, paved and decked areas. A gate gives access at the rear to a passageway serving this and neighbouring properties.
