With its well-planned layout and impeccable presentation, Fingals is an exceptional home set within an acre of private gardens and woodland, creating a truly secluded and idyllic retreat.

Inside, the home seamlessly blends elegance with functionality. The principal reception rooms, including a striking sitting room with a feature fireplace, are arranged around the reception hall, making them perfect for both relaxing and entertaining. Large doors connect these spaces to the garden room, which opens onto beautifully landscaped gardens. The formal dining room flows effortlessly into the well-appointed kitchen, which boasts a range of built-in appliances, Corian worktops, and ample storage. Skylights fitted with remote-controlled solar blinds flood the kitchen with natural light. Completing this section of the home is a practical cloakroom and a spacious utility room.

A separate hallway leads to the bedroom wing, where a modern shower room serves three generously proportioned bedrooms. The master suite is a true sanctuary, complete with a dressing area and four-piece en-suite bathroom. Three of the bedrooms feature spectacular views and built-in wardrobes.

Outside, Fingals is surrounded by over an acre of gardens and woodland. A sweeping driveway leads to a parking area, a double garage, and an oak-framed carport. The beautifully maintained gardens include level lawns, mature planting beds that follow the natural contours of the land, and a timber studio—ideal as a home office or hobby space. A standout feature is the heated swimming pool, complete with a telescopic folding cover.

Beautifully presented, individual home set within the picturesque Gordano Valley
