Perched in an elevated position along the sought-after Kings Road in Clevedon, this beautifully presented 1930s detached home boasts breathtaking panoramic views from the first floor, stretching across the Bristol Channel to the Welsh coast and rolling hills beyond.

Having been thoughtfully extended and modernised over the years, the property offers generous and well-proportioned living spaces throughout. The ground floor features a welcoming hallway that leads to the three reception rooms, a bright and airy sitting room, and a dining room that seamlessly connects to a charming conservatory, perfect for enjoying the tranquil surroundings. The modern kitchen is well fitted and is open plan to the utility room and cloakroom. The upper floor comprises three well-sized bedrooms, the two forward facing rooms enjoy the stunning outlook. Completing the accommodation is a modern family bathroom.

The rear garden is a true highlight—private, and backing directly onto the serene Dial Hill Woods, creating an idyllic retreat. At the front, two driveways provide ample parking, with one leading to a garage.

Ideally situated within walking distance of Clevedon's vibrant Hill Road, residents can enjoy an eclectic mix of cafés, shops, restaurants, and bars, all conveniently accessed via The Zig Zag path. This exceptional home seamlessly blends character, comfort, and convenience, making it a rare find in a prime location.

Stunning 1930s home with breathtaking views and idyllic gardens in a prime Clevedon location
