Spacious one bedroom apartment with parking, positioned in this excellent location only a short distance from Clevedon's pretty seafront. The accommodation is well presented and offers generous room proportions. The impressive open plan living room and kitchen sits to the front of the building with a superb bay window, with the bay set on the South aspect this creates a bright and inviting living area. The hallway leads to the modern bathroom and well proportioned double bedroom.

Outside the property has sole use of the small rockery garden in front of the bay window and an allocated parking space.

Victoria Road is a residential area with an eclectic array of largely period properties almost midway between the town centre and Seafront. It's also only a short distance to Hill Road shops, restaurants and bars.

Offered for sale with No Onward Chain we would recommend an early viewing appointment.

Excellent location only a short walk from Clevedon's iconic seafront, historic pier and Hill Road
