Set within the landmark St. Edith's building, this stunning first-floor apartment offers a perfect blend of historic charm and modern living. Originally constructed in 1870 as Hallam Hall by Reverend Jabez Horne, the building later became an orphanage that operated until 1974. Today, St. Edith's is a Grade II Listed structure that has been thoughtfully converted into 17 apartments, preserving its striking gothic-style exterior, complete with intricate windows and a turret. Apartment 11 certainly captures the essence of this unique building, with a true "wow" factor that seamlessly combines period elegance and contemporary comfort.

Upon entering this beautiful apartment, you are welcomed by a well-designed, linear layout that ensures each room is carefully positioned to take full advantage of the breathtaking South West-facing views. Whether you're relaxing in the spacious living area, enjoying a meal in the dining space, or unwinding in the comfortable bedrooms, you'll be treated to panoramic vistas stretching from the Mendip Hills to the Bristol Channel, and all the way to the Brecon Beacons and beyond. These spectacular views provide a sense of peace and tranquility, while offering a constant reminder of the stunning natural beauty surrounding Clevedon.

The interior of the apartment has been thoughtfully updated by the current owners, blending period features with modern finishes to create a stylish yet functional living space. High ceilings, large windows, and original architectural details, such as decorative cornices and period mouldings, create a sense of openness and light throughout. The seamless flow between the living spaces provides a perfect environment for both relaxation and entertaining. Each room has been carefully curated, with attention to detail ensuring comfort and practicality, while maintaining the building's historic character.

An excellent feature of this apartment is the abundance of storage space, with multiple cupboards, a loft storage area, and a garage, providing ample room for all your belongings. Located on Dial Hill Road, the apartment is just a short walk away from the vibrant Hill Road, with its mix of cafes, restaurants, and bars. Clevedon Cricket Club and a variety of scenic woodland walks are also right on your doorstep, offering a perfect balance of urban convenience and natural beauty.

Apartment 11 is truly a rare find – a remarkable opportunity to live in a beautifully restored building with a rich history, combined with all the modern amenities and stunning views Clevedon has to offer.
