Situated in a popular residential area on the outskirts of Clevedon, this detached home offers a superb blend of space, practicality, and location. Just a short walk from Clevedon's beautiful seafront, it provides easy access to both scenic coastal walks and everyday essentials, striking the perfect balance between lifestyle and convenience.

A generous driveway at the front offers ample parking and leads to a single garage, while inside, a welcoming entrance hall with stairs to the first floor sets a bright, inviting tone. The sitting room at the front seamlessly connects to a dining area, creating a sociable, open-plan living space. To the rear, an extension has expanded the kitchen, providing plenty of storage—ideal for busy family life. Additionally, the property is equipped with two LG air conditioning units, one on each floor, offering efficient cooling and heating for year-round comfort.

Upstairs, you'll find three bedrooms and a well-appointed family bathroom, all thoughtfully arranged to maximise space and functionality.

Outside, the rear garden is designed for easy upkeep, featuring a mix of patio and artificial lawn—perfect for relaxing or entertaining. A standout feature is the large outdoor cabin, which offers versatile potential as a home office, hobby space, or teenage retreat.

The home is within walking distance of Clevedon seafront and close to local amenities, including Mary Elton Primary School, Strode Leisure Centre, and Asda supermarket, making it an excellent choice for families or those seeking convenience in a well-connected location.

Detached family home near Clevedon seafront with spacious interiors, garden cabin, ample parking, and close to schools and amenities.
