Tucked away just moments from the vibrant Hill Road and a short stroll from Clevedon's stunning seafront, this charming semi-detached cottage blends period character with stylish modern touches. Approached via a shared driveway with an allocated parking space, the home immediately impresses with its exposed stone walls, original fireplace, and ceiling beams that reflect its heritage.

A storm porch leads into a welcoming hallway, opening onto a beautifully finished kitchen/dining room designed for modern living. The cosy sitting room is flooded with natural light thanks to double doors, and includes thoughtful built-in storage. A versatile utility area offers additional storage and space for a desk or study nook, complemented by a sleek downstairs shower room. Upstairs, the property offers two comfortable double bedrooms and a contemporary bathroom. Outside, the elevated garden is designed for ease, with decked patio seating areas and space for planting—perfect for enjoying the surroundings without extensive upkeep.

Located just steps from the independent shops, cafés, and restaurants of Hill Road, and within easy walking distance of Clevedon's picturesque seafront, this property combines peaceful living with immediate access to one of the town's most desirable and vibrant neighbourhoods. The property is also sold with no onward chain.

A rare combination of character, comfort, and convenience in one of Clevedon's most sought-after locations.
