Lake House Farm is a charming Grade II listed period home, beautifully positioned on the edge of Clevedon. Rich in character and original features, this handsome property offers an enviable blend of space, warmth and timeless appeal. With well-tended gardens arranged across three distinct areas, this is a home that perfectly balances semi-rural atmosphere with everyday practicality.

The accommodation is both welcoming and well laid out. Entering through the main hall, you are greeted by original flagstone flooring and useful built-in storage. The principal living room is a beautiful space, full of character, with oak flooring, exposed beams, a window seat and a striking Inglenook stone fireplace complete with a wood-burning stove. At the opposite end of the hallway, the farmhouse-style kitchen and dining room is equally inviting, finished with marble worktops and exposed beams. It's a true heart-of-the-home space, ideal for cooking, dining and entertaining. A rear hallway leads to a cloakroom and a practical utility cupboard, completing the ground floor. Upstairs, the landing connects to three well-proportioned bedrooms and a stylish four-piece family bathroom. The standout is the principal bedroom – a stunning retreat featuring a vaulted ceiling with exposed stone and timbers, views across the surrounding countryside, a walk-in wardrobe and a smart en-suite shower room.

Outside, the property enjoys gardens in three defined areas. The front garden is neatly laid to lawn and bordered by low box hedging, creating a pretty and well-kept approach. The main rear garden combines a second lawn with a patio area and a selection of mature shrubs, making it ideal for relaxing or entertaining. Beyond the parking area, the third section of garden includes a productive vegetable patch and a timber shed, providing extra storage and a real opportunity for keen gardeners.

Coal House Lane sits on the outskirts of Clevedon, offering a quiet and semi-rural feel while remaining connected to the town. Local footpaths allow easy access to Tesco supermarket, riverbank walks and onward routes into the centre of Clevedon. For those seeking a balance of privacy and convenience, this location is a real advantage.

Lake House Farm is a rare and special home, offering the charm and authenticity of a true period property in a setting that delivers both peace and accessibility. A home with heart, character and space, all just moments from the best of Clevedon.
