No. 8c, a charming two-bedroom mews character cottage tucked away just off The Beach, perfectly suited as a pied-à-terre or coastal retreat, with excellent access to Clevedon's seafront.

The accommodation begins with a welcoming entrance hallway. The living room is a cosy space featuring a fireplace, while an inner hallway leads through to the fitted kitchen. Completing the ground floor is the bathroom. Upstairs, there are two well-proportioned bedrooms.

Outside, the property enjoys predominantly communal grounds, together with the benefit of an allocated off-street parking space at the front of the building. The courtyard garden directly outside the cottage is for the sole use of this property, although residents of 8 The Beach do have access across this space in order to reach the shared shed.

The location is particularly attractive, offering easy access to Clevedon's seafront, Hill Road with its range of independent shops and eateries, Marine Lake, and transport links. A right of way exists to Copse Road and No. 8c, is available with no onward chain.

A delightful character cottage tucked away just off The Beach, offering a cosy retreat with excellent access to Clevedon's seafront and amenities.
