NEWPORT

Newport is one of South Wales' primary commercial centres with an approximate resident population of 137,000 with a wider catchment population of 478,000, within a 30 minute drive.

It has benefited from a number of new developments in recent years including the popular Friars Walk development which offers a range of fashion outlets, cafés and restaurants, a new improved Railway Station and the new Admiral Insurance office building.

THE HUB

The Hub is undergoing an extensive refurbishment to provide high quality 'funky' office space to suit modern day working practices, designed to inspire companies and individuals alike.

The first of its kind for Newport, the design of the floors will incorporate meeting areas created by shipping containers. The Hub will provide occupiers with an exciting and stimulating environment in which to work in a building ideally located to benefit from its proximity to Newport Railway Station.
