Property Description

SELLERS COMMENTS

Mum and Dad bought this good-sized, well-proportioned plot of land in Beechwood Gardens when they got married in 1954 and built their dream home in 1955. They added a verandah back in the 60s, with solid foundations in order to provide the potential to extend and to modernise the property.

Our parents lived here all their lives and we've had a happy and safe upbringing in this peaceful, tucked-away corner of Coventry.

Walking to the shops in Earlsdon or cycling to school has always been quick and easy thanks to our cut-through to Rochester Rd - this is definitely the correct side of the road to live on! The garden, greenhouse and fishpond were always their pride and joy, especially the spectacular wisteria.
