This property is available for a chain-free sale. Situated in the historic town of Lewes within the picturesque South Downs National Park, this former Old Town Assembly Hall offers bright and spacious dual-aspect living across three floors, featuring a south-facing garden. Located on Western Road, which seamlessly transitions into Lewes High Street, the home is moments away from restaurants, pubs, independent shops, and the South Downs. The ground floor showcases stylish, contemporary, open-plan spaces, with three bedrooms and a bathroom on the upper floors, all in excellent condition.

The house features a private gated entrance leading to a self-contained front courtyard garden. Inside, the hallway, with space for coats and shoes, leads to an open-plan area at the back, including a living room, dining area, and kitchen, with oak-engineered flooring and ceramic tiles. The kitchen is equipped with a Bosch electric hob and oven, integrated appliances, and direct access to a walled, south-facing garden. The first floor has a main bedroom with an ensuite, a second double bedroom, and a large bathroom. The top floor includes a spacious third bedroom. Resident-only parking is available on Western Road and the adjoining street.

Western Road is centrally located in Lewes and becomes Lewes High Street as you head east, putting you close to restaurants, pubs, and independent shops and cafés. The house is also near the South Downs, Paddock Park, and the Pells outdoor swimming pool. On Bonfire Night, you can watch the famous Lewes Bonfire societies parade past the house. Lewes train station, with direct fast trains to London (just over an hour) and Brighton (under 20 minutes), is nearby, as is The Depot, an independent cinema. Highly regarded schools, including infant and primary schools, Priory Secondary School, Sussex Downs College, and Lewes Old Grammar School, are within walking distance.
