2 Bedroom Apartment located in Brighton

Nestled in one of Brighton's most sought-after addresses, this exceptionally spacious and beautifully presented two-bedroom apartment occupies the lower ground floor of a historic Regency townhouse, set amidst meticulously maintained gardens in the vibrant heart of Sussex Square, Kemp Town. This unique residence seamlessly blends classic charm with modern comforts, offering an unparalleled living experience in one of the city's most iconic locales.

The apartment boasts generously proportioned rooms, each brimming with period detailing that reflects the elegance of its Regency heritage. The wide, airy corridors are a standout feature, providing a sense of openness and flow that enhances the overall living experience. These expansive hallways are not just functional but are also thoughtfully designed to offer significant storage space, catering to practical needs while maintaining the aesthetic appeal.

A notable highlight of the property is the versatile cellar room, which has been creatively adapted to serve as a third bedroom on occasion, adding to the apartment's flexibility and functionality. The open-plan living and dining area is a fantastic space for entertaining, characterized by its generous size and seamless integration with the fully fitted kitchen. The kitchen features sleek, contemporary units and high-end appliances, making it both a stylish and practical culinary space. This bright, airy room is adorned with modern decor and extends into the first private patio garden, creating an ideal setting for outdoor dining and relaxation during the warmer months.
