For sale by Public Auction and via Livestream on Thursday 25 July at 2.00pm at the Memorial Hall, Sherborne DT9 3AB. Substantial detached 19th-century property, currently a tearoom, with three en-suite bedrooms, outbuildings, all set in approximately 5.78 acres from which wonderful views can be had to the sea.

The Property

The Old English House has until 2020 been run as tearooms and is believed to date back to 1823. It has been substantially remodelled/extended in the interim creating a substantial property that is, subject to obtaining the necessary planning consents, ripe for conversion into a large residential property. The property in recent years has been for the most part updated. Behind the house there are 5.78 acres of wild pasture adjoining the SSSI on Hardown Hill, allowing some wonderful views to be enjoyed over in the National Trust Golden Cap Estate, taking in Langdon Woods, Golden Cap, Stonebarrow and finally the sea.

The accommodation briefly consists of the tearoom with fireplaces at either end, a kitchen, a utility room, two cloakrooms, a sitting room, a study/office, a dog and boot room, and three bedrooms each with an en-suite shower or bathroom. Attached to the house are a series of outbuildings which in all comprise seven spaces in differing states of condition and repair.

Outside

On the east side of the property there is a substantial area of parking laid to stone chippings, besides which there is an area of lawn. Behind the east side of the house a vehicular track gives access into the field. The field has remained fallow for many years making it a wildlife haven to the edges with pasture to the centre. From the field the best of the views can be enjoyed. The plot extends to approximately 5.78 acres.

Situation

Morcombelake has a village store and farm shop, while Whitchurch has a pub, village hall and parish church. The market town of Bridport lies approximately 6 miles to the East. Bridport has a history of rope-making and is now a gateway to the Jurassic, World Heritage coastline at nearby West Bay. It has a variety of independent shops, supermarkets, public houses and restaurants catering for a range of tastes and excellent arts and music events. Bridport is conveniently placed for Dorchester and Weymouth to the east and Axminster to the west. Walking, water sports and riding opportunities are plentiful in the area, with many walks starting from the town itself. Communication links are good with road links along the A35 and mainline stations at Maiden Newton and Axminster. Charmouth and Lyme Regis are also just a short motoring distance away.

Agents Note

1. There is an overage provision on the property lasting for 25 years from the 13th August 2015 whereby an additional payment is due upon the granting of a planning permission for an additional dwelling.
2. There is a restrictive covenant affecting the property by virtue of a Conveyance of 1975 preventing the property from being used for: "The sale or storage of intoxicating liquors or mineral waters except for private consumption on the property."

Auction Notes

Prospective buyers are strongly advised to take note of the advice and information given in these important notes.

IMPORTANT NOTICE - Symonds & Sampson LLP and their Clients give notice that:

1. They have no authority to make or give any representations or warranties in relation to the property. The particulars do not form part of any offer or contract and must not be relied upon as statements or representations of fact.
2. Any areas, measurements, or distances are approximate. The text, photographs and plans are for guidance only and are not necessarily comprehensive. It should not be assumed that the properties have all necessary Planning, Building Regulation or other consents, and Symonds & Sampson LLP have not tested any services, equipment or facilities. Purchasers must satisfy themselves by inspection or otherwise.
3. This catalogue contains details about properties being sold at auction. The vendors reserve the right to sell their properties prior to auction and these details can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction. Please check our website regularly at: www.symondsandsampson.co.uk and look out for any additional materials available on the day of the auction, in order to ensure you have all the up to date information.

Plans and Measurements - All room sizes, site measurements and distances are approximate and may have been scaled from architects, Land Registry or Ordnance Survey plans. They are there to assist buyers in identifying the lots offered and not guaranteed to be to scale or to indicate the full extent of the property being offered. Buyers are advised to view the Special Conditions and full legal documentation in respect of the precise interest to be sold.

Each lot will be sold in accordance with the title documentation as the location plans shown in the catalogue are for identification purposes only. Interested applicants should make their own site inspections and investigations with regard to the accuracy of all measurements given in the catalogue.

VAT - Prospective buyers should satisfy themselves as to whether VAT is chargeable on the price prior to the auction from the seller's solicitors.

Tenure - Freehold and vacant possession will be given on completion unless otherwise stated.

The Guide Price is an indication of the seller's current minimum acceptable price at auction. It is given to assist consumers in deciding whether or not to pursue a purchase.

It is usual, but not always the case that a provisional reserve range is agreed between the seller and the auctioneer at the start of marketing. As the reserve is not fixed at this stage and can be adjusted by the seller at any time up to the day of the auction in the light of interest shown during the marketing period, a guide price is issued. A guide price is different to a reserve price (see below). Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.

The Reserve Price is the seller's minimum acceptable price at auction and the figure below which the auctioneer cannot sell. The reserve price is not disclosed and remains confidential between the seller and the auctioneer. Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction. The 'Reserve Price' may exceed the 'Guide Price' listed. If so, it is customary for the 'Reserve Price' to exceed the guide price by no more than 10%.

If two or more lots are offered together in the first instance, or lots are purchased under one contract, the administration fee will apply per lot and not per contract. The charge will apply to lots bought prior to and post auction. In the event of non-payment or underpayment a deduction will be made from the deposit received. A VAT receipt will be issued in the name of the buyer.

Disbursements
