Broadway Lea is a fine country residence dating from the 1920s, in the popular Somerset village of Shipham on the edge of the Mendip Hills. Redesigned and extended by the present owners to a high specification, it now presents an elegant, contemporary family home, surrounded by well-maintained mature gardens with stabling for three horses, 4 paddocks, a tennis court, 3 garages and ample private parking. The house benefits from a major renovation in 2012.
