LOCATION

The development is situated in the small yet lively village of Brookenby, which is within close proximity to the town of Market Rasen and is commutable to Lincoln, Grimsby, Scunthorpe, and Louth with the Humber Bridge and major M62 motorway not that far away. The area around Lancaster Heights offers a peaceful rural charm with plenty of outdoor space. The village itself has a range of amenities including a local shop, the local primary school is in the neighbouring village of Binbrook and the nearest secondary school, leisure centre, swimming pool, railway station and a wider range of shops including a Tesco Superstore are located around 15 minutes away in Market Rasen. There is also a regular bus service connecting the village to nearby towns and cities. The remaining dwellings on the development each consist of 4-bedroom, detached family homes with modern yet timeless specifications.

Each home features traditional Lincolnshire style exteriors with red bricks and Red Low Pitch Pantile roof. The properties sit in generous plot sizes with block-paved driveways, purpose-built carports, and enclosed boundaries. If this sounds like your ideal place to live, especially if you enjoy the tranquillity of the countryside while still having access to essential amenities and transport links please get in touch with us to arrange a viewing.
