

Church Cottage

Spital-in-the-street, Market Rasen, LN8 2AU

£385,000

Church Cottage is a truly fascinating and immaculately presented Grade II Listed Character Cottage with a deep-rooted history dating back to pre-16th Century. Situated on a beautiful plot of approximately 0.7 Acres (STS), the property is adjacent to the medieval Chapel of St Edmunds and offers well-proportioned living accommodation spread over two floors and also offers the flexibility to utilise the Third Reception Room as an additional Bedroom. With an abundance of noteworthy character features throughout, the layout briefly comprises; Front Entrance leading into the Dining Room with steps up to the Family Room and onto the Breakfast Kitchen, a Sitting Room, Ground Floor Bathroom and individual staircases leading to each generous Double Bedroom, with En-Suite WC from Bedroom One. Externally there are an array of excellent Outbuildings including a Large Studio/former Garage that is currently used as additional Guest Quarters with built-in storage, Former Stables that are currently used as a large Workshop, Outdoor Games Room/Bar with log burner, Potting Sheds and Garden Sheds. There is ample off-road parking for multiple vehicles provided by the front driveway leading to the double gates that open onto the Reception Courtyard with an ornate circular raised Pond. A wisteria adorned archway leads to the rear entrance door and onto the spectacular formal gardens that must be viewed to be fully appreciated. There are a variety of wonderful patio seating areas, large Pond with bridge across, views across the open fields to the rear and a further side patio area with raised vegetable beds and planters; the outside space is just as special as the interior of this superior property.
