Location

Salisbury is a historic Cathedral City in Central Southern England with a resident population of 41,800 approx. and the County's population is 510,300 (Source: 2021 Census). The City and its magnificent Cathedral together with the World Heritage site at Stonehenge, are major tourist attractions for the region. Salisbury has a main-line railway station with frequent service to London Waterloo.

Chequers Court is situated in the heart of Salisbury City Centre. It overlooks Brown Street Car Park and Culver Street Multi-Storey Car Park, accessed via the City's Ring Road is close by.

Description

35a Brown Street forms part of the Chequers Court development of modern office buildings constructed in the late 1980's.

The property comprises a self contained three storey office building of brick elevations under a pitched slate roof. The premises are accessed via an archway in the Brown Street frontage, leading to a rear car park courtyard.

The accommodation comprises open plan offices on ground, first and second floors, with kitchen and cloakroom facilities. The ground and first floors have suspended ceilings with recessed Category II lighting, gas fired central heating and are carpeted throughout. There is a kitchenette area on the first floor. There are 2 allocated car parking spaces.
