double bedroom. Each apartment comes fully furnished with an induction hob, dishwasher, fridge and microwave oven, alongside complimentary cookware and equipment such as a toaster and kettle. Each apartment is serviced to the same high standard as the hotel, with full use of the hotel's facilities such as daily housekeeping, parking, Wi-Fi, laundry, room service, and access to the bar/restaurants. While each apartment has a maximum occupation limit of 29 days, your stay can be extended by moving into another room at no additional fee (subject to apartment sizes and availability). Additional apartment sizes and accessibility options are also available:

The Standard apartments are an appealing option for two guests, offering extra privacy afforded by the private lounge area and small kitchen.

The Large apartments provide additional space for more enjoyable living, with the option of purpose-built Accessible Apartments on the ground floor benefitting from a full wet room.

The Mercure Salisbury Apartments are set off an elegant Grade II listed building, located right in the heart of the cathedral city of Salisbury. The historic 4-star White Hart Hotel dates back to the 1600s, and these 12 brand new apartments make an ideal short-term base for those selling or purchasing a property, or those looking to move into the area, tour the city and visit family and friends. The central location provides guests with an excellent range of restaurants and independent shops close by, being a short walk from Salisbury's excellent range of cultural, education and shopping amenities. This is also within a 15 minute walk of the mainline train station to London Waterloo (approximately 90 minutes).
