99 PAINSWICK ROAD

With the benefit of full planning consent to create a magnificent house of distinction within this private and mature plot approaching a third of an acre. The existing dwelling would benefit from a programme of refurbishment and upgrading if the proposed redevelopment scheme is not implemented.

- Porch accessed through an imposing front door with obscure glazed door into the reception hall which enjoys the original staircase and shower room
- Triple aspect sitting room including bay window
- Formal dining room with triple aspect
- Generous kitchen/breakfast room
- Family room with box bay window and glazed double doors into the garden
- Four generous double bedrooms including a master with fitted wardrobes and guest bedroom with a large amount of eaves storage
- Bathroom and separate cloakroom
- Large garage, driveway and mature west facing gardens and grounds - in all about 0.3acres

DESCRIPTION

Set back from the road and within mature gardens and grounds, we understand that 99 Painswick Road dates back to the 1920's. The property is now offered for sale with full planning consent to create one of the finest individual houses along this highly desirable road. If implemented, the programme of refurbishment and extension would see the property measure in excess of 5,000sq.ft.

Planning Reference: 19/00304/FUL.

SITUATION

Painswick Road is considered to be one of the most sought after residential roads in Cheltenham. Within walking distance are an eclectic mix of shops, public houses and cafés along Bath Road together with Sainsbury's and Co-operative supermarkets. Sandford Park, together with its famous open air lido and Cheltenham General Hospital are all within walking distance whilst Montpellier, the Promenade and the town's High Street, including John Lewis and a wide range of stores are also reachable on foot. Cheltenham's plethora of sought after schools are also easily accessible.
