- Requiring some refurbishment
- Over 5 acres of pastureland and woodland
- Fantastic country setting
- Subject to Agricultural Occupancy

GENERAL REMARKS

Trenwydd is a beautifully situated smallholding which extends to just over 5 acres of pasture and woodland, set in a glorious location on the Welsh Marches.

Whilst requiring some refurbishment, the detached farmhouse provides 3/4 bedrooms with the option of extending into the loft area. There is a large farmhouse kitchen/diner with a Rayburn range together with a well proportioned living room with oil fired stove and study/optional bedroom. Off the kitchen is a walk-in pantry and utility with a ground floor cloaks/WC and a first floor bathroom.

Outside is an integral single garage together with a large parking area and small storage building. Lawns and terraces surround the house and overlook the land which is bisected by a stream with a barn which needs rebuilding. There is an enclosed area including part of the stream which was used to keep chickens and ducks, including two sheds to house them. There is a bridge over the stream in this area.

AGRICULTURAL OCCUPANCY

The house was built subject to condition "that the occupation of the dwelling shall be limited to a person solely or mainly employed or last employed in the locality in agriculture, or in forestry (including any dependants of such a person residing with him) or a widow or widower of such a person".

Interested parties must satisfy that they each comply with this condition before arranging a viewing.

LOCATION

The property is located in an unspoilt setting on the Welsh Marches with landscapes of natural charm and beauty. The small village of Felindre is about 2 miles distant and Beguildy is around 4 miles away. The larger market towns of Newtown (13 miles) and Knighton (12 miles) provide a wider range of service and amenities and access to the national rail network.
