Halls are favoured with instructions to offer this versatile parcel of amenity near Stanton Upon Hine Heath, for sale by Private Treaty.

The land is, at present, retained within a single enclosure of permanent pasture ideal for the grazing of all kinds of livestock, if required, particularly horses. It is in an attractive unspoilt rural location yet still convenient to the nearby villages of Stanton Upon Hine Heath and Shawbury. It should also be of particular interest to those with livestock and horses or those just wishing to purchase some amenity land in a rural location for recreational use (subject to obtaining the necessary Local Authority planning permission if required).

The land extends, in all, to approximately 5.36, or thereabouts. It is unusual for a handy sized parcel of land such as this in such an unspoilt rural location to be offered for sale and, therefore, Halls recommend an immediate inspection.
