DESCRIPTION

Halls are delighted with instructions to offer Frankton House, at Welsh Frankton, near Ellesmere, for sale by private treaty.

Frankton House is a particularly attractive and substantial period country house situated within land and gardens extending to around 25 acres, or thereabouts, whilst also boasting a fully converted barn (currently utilised as a Holiday Cottage) and a further range of versatile outbuildings, all of which offer scope for modernisation, located in a delightful rural setting within the north Shropshire hamlet of Welsh Frankton.

The property, which offers a wealth of internal accommodation extending to over 3000 sq ft, represents an excellent opportunity for refurbishment and modernisation, currently comprising, on the ground floor, an entrance Porch, Dining Room, Living Room, Conservatory, Breakfast Room, Kitchen (with spacious Pantry), Utility Room, Cloakroom, and Boot Room, together with, to the first floor, five Bedrooms (three of which benefit from En-Suites), a Study, and a family Shower Room.

Externally, the property is complimented by generous gardens which surround the property and currently comprise areas of lawn interspersed by floral and herbaceous borders. The gardens, again, may benefit from landscaping in order to realise their full potential.

Most unusually, the property also features a converted barn, currently utilised as a single holiday cottage but with excellent potential for a variety of future usages, such as dependant living, and may even offer scope for division into two units (PP permitting).

Frankton House also benefits from a further range of versatile outbuildings, to briefly include: Lean-To/Store, Garage/Workshop, General Store/Stables, two bay Portal Frame Dutch Barn, and timber Garage.

The property is situated within land and gardens extending, in all, to around 25 acres, or thereabouts, with the latter being of particular note to those with agricultural or equestrian interests. The land is retained within convenient sized enclosures and is suitable for the grazing of a variety of livestock whilst enjoying excellent views to the South encompassing the Shropshire Hills.

SITUATION

Frankton House is situated on the outskirts of the hamlet of Welsh Frankton, set back from a quiet country lane a short distance from the A495 Ellesmere to Oswestry Road. The hamlet provides an active Community Hall, Cricket Club, and Church, with a further extensive range of amenities available in the nearby town of Ellesmere (3 miles). The location is popular for commuting to Oswestry, Shrewsbury, Wrexham, Chester and Liverpool, with easy access to regional airports at Liverpool, Birmingham and Manchester. There are a number of highly regarded private and state schools nearby including The Marches, Lakelands Academy, Ellesmere College, Moreton Hall and Packwood Haugh.
