To the rear are attractively maintained gardens which comprise an area of shaped lawn bordered by slate and floral beds, alongside a number of mature trees.

The Entrance Hall culminates at a door which provides access into a versatile Family/Dining room, ideal for use for formal dining occasions or as a further reception room, with a window onto the rear elevation overlooking the gardens and a multi-fuel burner set within a partially exposed-brick inglenook, alongside stairs which lead down to a useful cellar. From the Family/Dining Room, a further door opens into a Kitchen with a range of base and wall units, secondary access door, and window onto the side.
