GENERAL REMARKS

Dick Whittington's Cottage is an utterly charming traditional thatched country cottage believed to date back to the 16th Century and understood to have been occupied by its namesake. The property has, over the succeeding centuries, been extended and modernised and now provides almost 1700 sq ft of characterful living accommodation arranged across two generous floors.

The cottage rests within generous gardens which extend to around 0.46ac and enjoy bucolic views across the unspoilt countryside which unfolds to the west, whilst comprising ample driveway parking for a number of vehicles, a detached double garage, and expanses of lawn complemented by an array of established trees, floral beds, and seating areas.

SITUATION

The property occupies a particularly delightful rural location on the fringes of the rural hamlet of Newnes, which nestles amongst the undulating farmland and open fields of the renowned north Shropshire countryside, making it a haven for those with rambling, cycling, and equestrian interests, whilst retaining a convenient proximity to the nearby lakeland town of Ellesmere, which, alongside the picturesque Mere, provides a range of day to day amenities. The county centres of Wrexham, Chester, and Shrewsbury lie to the north and south respectively and offer a wider range of facilities, including cultural and artistic attractions.

PROPERTY

The property is principally accessed from the west into a useful Utility/Boot Room, ideal for storing muddy boots and coats after walks in the surrounding countryside, this leading in to spacious Kitchen/Breakfast Room which spans almost 8m in length and serves as the heart of this historic home, with a range of fitted units complemented by open space for seating or dining positioned between dual aspect windows which offer views across the gardens and the scenery beyond.

Approximate Area = 1680 sq ft / 156 sq m
Limited Use Area(s) = 118 sq ft / 10.9 sq m

From the Kitchen, doors lead into two versatile Reception Rooms, both retained within walls which boast an array of exposed timbers which exemplify the period charm of the home, with the Living Room lit by triple-aspect windows and arranged around a central inglenook, and with a Dining Room leading through to a rear Hallway offering secondary access from the north, alongside access to a Cloakroom and a staircase to the first floor.

The first floor is principally accessed via a staircase which rises from the Kitchen/Breakfast Room to a first floor landing, where doors provide access into three well proportioned Bedrooms, each able to accommodate double beds and enjoying elevated views across the unspoilt setting within which the cottage is encompassed. The Bedrooms are served by a family Bathroom comprising a suite which features a bath, hand basin, bidet, and low flush WC.

GARDENS

The property is positioned within generous gardens which extend, in all, to around 0.46ac. Accessed off a quiet country lane onto ample driveway parking for a number of vehicles, this leading on to a detached double Garage (approx. 7.16m x 5.90m).

The gardens envelope the cottage and provide a wonderful accompaniment to the home, with expanses of lawn interspersed with mature trees, well-stocked floral beds, and a number of seating areas, all designed to capitalise on the far-reaching views which unfold to the west across open farmland.

SCHOOLING

The property is comfortably situated for access to a number of well regarded state and private schools, including Ellesmere Primary School, Lakelands Academy, Criftins C of E Primary (rated outstanding), Welshampton C of E Primary, The Maelor School, Ellesmere College, Moreton Hall School, Oswestry School, Packwood Haugh, and Adcote School for Girls.
