DESCRIPTION

Halls are delighted with instructions to offer Bank House, Craigllyn, near Oswestry, for sale by private treaty.

Bank House is a substantial three-bedroom detached bungalow which enjoys over 1,200 sq ft of flexibly arranged and generously proportioned living accommodation, all now offering excellent potential for comprehensive modernisation.

For those seeking a more expansive project, the property benefits from full planning permission for the erection of a replacement dwelling which would provide almost 2,400 sq ft of carefully designed and elegantly arranged internal accommodation, ideal for family living

The property is enviably situated within expansive gardens which extend, in all, to around 0.26ac, with the elevated position affording far-reaching and breath-taking views across the unspoilt countryside beyond. The gardens, again, provide purchasers with superb potential for further landscaping whilst allowing for ample off-street parking.

SITUATION

Bank House perches majestically above the dramatically undulating landscape of the England/Wales border within the rural hamlet of Craigllyn, which lies broadly equidistant between the villages of Llansilin and Trefonen, which, together, provide a respectable range of day-to-day amenities, including Schools, Convenience Store, and Public Houses, whilst providing immediate access to a range of country lanes and public footpaths ideal for those with rambling or cycling interests. The thriving market town of Oswestry is positioned around three miles to the east and enjoys a more comprehensive array of amenities of all kinds, with the nearby county centres of Shrewsbury, Wrexham, and Chester all within commuting distance.

SCHOOLING

The property lies within a convenient proximity to a number of well regarded state and private schools, including Ysgol Bro Cynllaith, Trefonen CofE Primary School, Morda CofE Primary School, The Marches School, Woodside Primary School, The Meadows Primary School, Oswestry School, Moreton Hall, Packwood Haugh, and Ellesmere College.
