LOCATION

Bewdley has been described as the most perfect small Georgian town in Worcestershire with the beautiful River Severn running through a rich and undulating landscape that provides a fabulous townscape heritage. Its strongly defined character is partly based upon a collection of fine historical buildings. With a comprehensive range of amenities both sporting and recreational with junior and senior schools, a variety of local shops and doctors surgery. Bewdley has something for everyone. Birmingham is approximately 24 miles and the cathedral city of Worcester approximately 15 Miles distant which provides direct rail connections to London, Paddington and Birmingham. The M5 motorway has access via junction 5 at Wychbold and Junctions 6 & 7 to the north and south of Worcester.
