LOCATION

The property enjoys a peaceful setting within the hamlet of Ribbesford, which lies within a conservation area, close to the historic town of Bewdley. Ribbesford has a lovely and well attended parish church believed to date back in part to around 1100. The surrounding countryside offers endless footpaths (including the Worcestershire Way) and bridleways through the nearby Ribbesford woods, the Wyre Forest and along the River Severn, offering outstanding opportunities for walking, riding and all country pursuits. The pretty riverside town of Bewdley offers excellent individual shopping and leisure facilities whilst regional amenities for commerce and education lie within Worcester, Kidderminster and indeed throughout the West Midlands. Also close by is the West Midlands Safari Park, Severn Valley Railway and Wharton Park Golf Club. The situation offers outstanding rural living, yet with facilities just a short distance away.

INTRODUCTION
