DIRECTIONS

SITUATION

The property is located within close proximity to the villages of Minsterley and Pontesbury both offering a range of amenities including shops, primary and secondary schools, restaurants, public houses and dental and medical practices. Commuters will be pleased to note there is access through to the county town of Shrewsbury with its excellent leisure amenities with the A5 providing further links through to the M54 motorway and onto Telford.

DESCRIPTION

Oaklands is a deceptively spacious and well proportioned mature detached house with accommodations laid out over three floors. To the ground floor comprises a spacious living room, sitting room, bedroom 1 and bathroom. Steps then lead down to a family room and large breakfast kitchen with useful utility room and guest WC. Positioned to the side and over looking the gardens is a conservatory, whilst to the first floor there are two further bedrooms and a shower room. The property requires an extensive scheme of modernisation and improvement, which allows a fantastic opportunity for all potential purchasers to introduce their own designs and tastes. Outside, there is a generous gravelled parking area which leads to a detached open fronted garage with adjoining workshop. A second gated driveway extends to the other side of the property with room for further parking. The gardens sit to both sides and offer lawned areas, established borders and a number of specimen trees. It should be noted that the property has a free flowing stream which runs through the grounds. IN ALL APPROXIMATELY 0.37 ACRE.
