DESCRIPTION

Waterside Cottage is an attractive Grade II listed period 3-4 bedroom semi-detached family home with spacious, flexible and well laid out accommodation set over two floors on the Tyrley Lock. The property is situated in an incredibly popular location and has a huge amount of scope to be updated and made into a stunning home. Waterside Cottage has the most spectacular views of the canal and countryside beyond, it is set in a truly idyllic location. The accommodation and position make it a very special property with wonderfully proportioned rooms.

There is potential for significant updating. Waterside Cottage offers plenty of character throughout whilst still providing the potential for great living accommodation for the modern family.

There are two large reception rooms, one located off the kitchen which would give you a lovely open plan living/dining area. The second is a more formal L shaped sitting room that includes a study. There is a large utility room/second kitchen and also a further reception room with its own entrance that could be separated from the main house and used as a two storey one bedroom annex as there is a large office accessed by stairs above.

In the main body of the house there are three bedrooms, a family bathroom and a family shower room on the first floor.

OUTSIDE

Waterside Cottage is approached to the rear where there is a shared driveway that leads to plenty of private parking to the left with the beautiful gardens beyond. There is also parking directly behind the property and also an integral double garage. The expansive wonderful mature gardens have been looked after and landscaped over many years. There are some lovely walks through and they offer a great deal of peace and tranquillity.

To the front of the property is a small private garden with spectacular views of the lock, canal and local countryside.
