SITUATION

The property is located in a most idyllic and attractive position on the fringe of the popular village of Minsterley and lies at the foot of the Hope Valley and close to the Stiperstones. The village of Minsterley offers a selection of basic amenities including a mini Morrisons petrol station, pub and primary school. The next village of Pontesbury also provides a comprehensive school and a wider range of amenities. Shrewsbury offers a fashionable and extensive range of facilities, including a rail service. Alternatively, further west is the pretty market town of Bishops Castle.

DESCRIPTION

Brook Cottage has undergone an extensive scheme of modernisation and extension, completed by the current owners. The accommodation is flexible and versatile and offers a feature open plan living dining kitchen, separate sitting room, bedroom four/family room, utility room and guest WC. To the first floor, there are three bedrooms, the principal of which has an en-suite washroom and all three bedrooms are served by the bathroom. Outside, there is a large gravelled driveway parking area with space for numerous vehicles. A pathway extends from the driveway and leads up to the residence. Positioned to the rear of the property is a insulated steel framed workshop/gym/craft room. The gardens are a stunning feature to the property and offer extensive flowing lawns, containing numerous floral shrubbery beds and borders, fruit cage and a variety of different specimen fruit trees. The gardens provide fantastic far reaching views over adjoining countryside and hills in the distance, including the Callow. Positioned off the driveway is a modern garden room/home office, which has mains power, lighting and glazing to the front which looks over the free flowing stream and towards the gardens and cottage.
