DIRECTIONS

From Shrewsbury, take the A488 south west to Pontesbury and after The Nags Head pub, take the left turn onto Bogey Lane. Continue along, taking the left turn by the primary school and at the next junction turn left for Habberley. Follow this lane for about 2 miles into the village and take the second turning right, signed Westcott/Bridges. Follow this road for approximately 1.3 miles and take the first turning right (unsigned). Continue along until reaching a fork in the road, and proceed left, over the cattlegrid onto a single track road. Continue over the next two cattle grids and at the next fork in the road, take the right turn towards Hollies Farm, continue through the farmyard to the very top and onto a part stoned track. This is where vehicles should be parked. Unless you have a 4x4, proceed on foot along the lane through 5 gates until reaching the cottage.

SITUATION

The property is situated in a stunning and most natural rural environment, just on the shoulder of the Stiperstones, with stunning views over the valley towards the Shropshire Plain in the distance. This truly idyllic unspoilt position, is set beautifully elevated on the hillside. The village of Habberley is approximately 3 miles away and offers a church, village hall and public house. Further amenities can be found at Pontesbury, including a basic selection of shops, schools and a doctors surgery. The county town of Shrewsbury with its historic centre, offers a most comprehensive range of amenities, including an excellent shopping centre, recreational and educational facilities, together with a rail service.
