DIRECTIONS

From Shrewsbury proceed north along the A5 and then continue along the dual carriage way and over the next roundabout. On reaching Shotatton crossroads, turn right for Ruyton XI Towns. Proceed through the village and travel to the far end until reaching a narrow bridge. Cross over and the property will be seen on the left hand side.

SITUATION

The property is attractively positioned, on the fringe of the village, with gardens backing onto farmland. The village itself provides a good selection of basic amenities including a shop/Post Office, pub/restaurant, veterinary surgery, church, primary school and Packwood Haugh preparatory school. The neighbouring village of Baschurch is also popular, which offers a further selection of amenities including the popular Corbet School. Commuters have easy access south to Shrewsbury with its excellent shopping centre, whilst north lies Oswestry, with further road links through to Wrexham and Chester.
