DIRECTIONS

From Shrewsbury take the A488 road through Pontesbury and Minsterley. Continue up the Hope Valley and carry on until reaching a right turning signposted Gravels Bank. Take the right turning and proceed along this road and the property is located after a short distance on the right hand side.

SITUATION

The property is beautifully situated in a scenic rural setting in an area of outstanding natural beauty, providing wonderful views over the surrounding countryside and hills. The property sits between Shrewsbury and the market town of Bishops Castle. The villages of Minsterley and Pontesbury are readily accessible and offer a range of amenities. The area is particularly popular amongst walkers and out riders whilst commuters have access to Shrewsbury and the A5 which links through to the M54 motorway.

DESCRIPTION

1 Gravels Bank is a highly desirable detached cottage which offers excellent scope to modernise and extend subject to necessary planning permissions and building regulations. The cottage currently comprises a living room, kitchen, bathroom and sitting room all to the ground floor. Whilst the first floor offers two bedrooms. Outside and positioned to the opposite of the road are a range of corrugated outbuildings together with a generous off road parking area. The gardens currently offer lawns together with a generous area positioned to the front which was formerly utilised for shrubbery beds, borders and vegetables. However over time this has become some what over grown and requires attention. The land is split and positioned on both sides of the road. Adjoining the property and gardens is a generous enclosure laid to pasture. Positioned on the other side of the road and located next to the outbuildings is the remainder of the land which is also laid to pasture, Initially sloping this then levels off and is divided into four main paddocks - approximately 10.9 acres. It should be noted that there are stunning far reaching open views from the land. IN ALL APPROX 12.41 ACRES.
