The entrance hallway has three built-in cupboards for shoes and jackets, doors lead off to all ground floor rooms bar utility. The living room has a solid chimney (not tested) with three tall windows overlooking the private front garden. French doors lead into the conservatory, which has two external doors to the rear garden and enjoys views over the surrounding countryside. There is a rear lobby with cloakroom and further store cupboard. A ground floor bedroom is situated to the rear with an en-suite, dressing room and french doors out to the rear garden. The kitchen is open plan to a dining and lounge area with stairs to the first floor. The utility leads off the kitchen and has doors to a further cloakroom, integral garage and the driveway. On the first floor there are two bedrooms serviced by a bathroom along with the annexe kitchen diner, bedroom/reception and further bathroom.

Outside a gravel driveway leads off the main road up to electric remote controlled timber gates leading into a good expanse of gravel driveway for a number of vehicles. There is an oversized integral garage with loft storage over. There is a front patio area outside the kitchen and leading up to the front door. The garden leads round to the rear, which is very much of an English cottage garden theme with a low brook with bridge over. There is a further patio off the ground floor bedroom with cast iron staircase providing independent access up to the annexe. A footpath continues round the rear and back to the driveway, partially separated by timber fencing with space for a greenhouse.

Services: we are informed mains gas, electric, water and sewage.

Situation

Great Coxwell is a small rural village, located just off the A420 main artery road, within a short distance to Faringdon market town. Abutting nearby Wiltshire, north Berkshire and south Gloucestershire, there are plenty of sites to see and visit. The area has great transport options for joining the M4 and M5 motorways promptly, trains to central London running from Swindon and buses from Oxford. The route 66 bus runs along the A420 to Swindon and Oxford. Faringdon has a leisure centre, library, doctors surgery and includes waitrose, aldi and tesco store plus an array of boutique businesses, such as a local butcher, cafes, restaurant's, gift shops and a host of services such as hair salons etc. A large Sainsbury's supermarket is within a fifteen minute drive, located just outside Swindon with a small retail park situated opposite. Faringdon offers well regarded state primary and secondary schools (with sixth form) plus private schools such as Pinewood and St Hugh's are a few miles away. The village medieval Great Barn is one of the largest of its kind in Europe. Much of the surrounding landscape is pastoral and owned by National Trust, giving fantastic views toward the Uffington White Horse, within an area of outstanding natural beauty, the North Wessex Downs.
