Summary Continued

The rear garden is one of the selling points being completely secluded from the rear and full of established flowers and shrubs which makes it a haven for wildlife, birds, bees, etc.

The personal gate at the rear leads out to a footpath and farmland fields beyond.

The whole property has gas central heating via radiators and full UPVC replacement double glazed windows and doors.

Accessed from both the kitchen/diner and the lounge is an additional sun room.

Situated in a non estate location the property is superb for anyone who enjoys riverside walks or who has dogs. Additionally access to the A14/A12 is less than a 5 minute drive away. You couldn't be more conveniently placed also for anyone who enjoys exploring the Shotley Pinninsular.

It is highly convenient also for Ipswich High School and also Royal Hospital School in Holbrook.

Front Garden

The front garden has wooden gates leading through to a spacious driveway area which is concreted and shingled and provides parking for at least three cars if not four or five. The driveway continues adjacent to the bungalow with a further car park space and leads to the garage.
