Summary Continued

On the ground floor the property benefits from an easterly facing living room which with double wooden doors that open out into a separate dining room meaning this could be opened to an open plan living/dining room area or separated into two separate rooms.

The pitched roof extension which was carried out approximately 8 years ago has created a marvellous kitchen/breakfast room with a luxury top of the range fitted kitchen with a wealth of units and French doors opening out onto the garden as well as a fitted water softener.

The rear garden is another selling feature in its entirety which is a westerly facing rear garden which has been immaculately maintained and presented and is un-overlooked from the rear. The garden commences with a patio area with well stocked flowers/shrubs a rear seating area for an early morning cuppa, afternoon glass of wine or alfresco dining plus a very nice summer house at the rear.

The property is situated in north Ipswich's most sought after and exclusive locations. Corder Road is a stones throw away from Christchurch Park and access into Ipswich town centre is only a fifteen minute walk away.

There is full central heating via radiators with a modern boiler having been replaced approximately 10 years ago and has been regularly serviced since.

There has been new flooring in the understairs bookcase area, hall and landing.

Another superb improvement to the property is full replacement upvc windows which the owner has been careful to ensure are sympathetic with the age and period of this character property and they are in a very effective sash style to replicate the original wooden sash windows.

The property also offers potential for further extension/addition as being carried out in a number of similar properties on this side of Corder Road.

This includes a conversion of the loft space with the addition of a second staircase as being carried out in the next door property and there is also plenty of room at the side/rear of the property for a side extension, which has been carried out in the adjacent property on the other side.

With four very good size first floor bedrooms, a modern replacement upstairs family bathroom plus a spacious en-suite shower room from the main bedroom and also a downstairs cloakroom the property is well served with toilet and washing facilities.

The bathroom suites in the both the family bathroom and the en-suite were replaced approximately 8-10 years ago.

There is a resin driveway providing off street parking for two vehicles and an outside EV electric car charging point.

Front Garden

Neat replacement resin driveway with drop kerb providing off street parking for two carefully parked small vehicles or one larger vehicle. There is an outside
