Brook Cottages, Lower Road

Grundisburgh, Woodbridge, IP13 6UJ

Guide price £400,000

Summary Continued

The separate dining area comes complete with a multifuel burner which, when lit, can warm the entire cottage on cosy winter nights, there is also a gas central heating system via radiators.

The oak fitted kitchen has a centre piece of a very impressive double width Rangemaster oven, hob and double width extractor hood and there is an additional separate utility room with a further room off the kitchen.

The luxury replacement bathroom comes complete with a feature coiled spring radiator that adds a contemporary twist.

There are lovely views from many of the windows across hedges, trees and the countryside beyond.

Outside is where there a large number of additional selling benefits.

This cottage comes complete with the rare facility for a triple width three car blocked paved driveway immediately in front of the property.

The 140' plus rear garden comes complete with a modern decking area which is an absolute sun trap and ideal for sitting out having a cuppa, glass of wine and alfresco dining. The garden is in four sections each with their own features and characters.

In the third section of the garden are many timber outbuildings including a separate timber triple office suite and mini gym supplied with light and power, heating and with wired internet. There are also log stores, workshops, garden storage area an additional bike shed and enclosed work areas.

The rear garden is largely screened from the rear by large established trees and hedging.

Set away from the village in a quieter area the property is ideally positioned with access to Woodbridge train station only seven minutes away plus the east area of Ipswich/Kesgrave only a 12 minute drive away.

Countryside living in this cottage is superb for anyone with dogs or who likes mountain biking or the countryside generally and with a wealth of bridle ways and footpaths in the vicinity in all directions.

The actual centre of Grundisburgh is only a short distance away with its local shop, post office, school and pub and an active social and community life. Grundisburgh also has a doctors surgery.

The village hall and playing fields with playing area is also only a short distance away.

Front Garden

To the front of the property is a driveway leading to a triple width blocked paved parking area with three spaces enclosed by hedging. There is a path leading to front door with outside tap.

Boot Room

Fourth Section of Garden

Which is a work/storage area which has a covered log store.

Wood Store Shed

Open on two sides.

Village of Grundisburgh

The actual centre of Grundisburgh is only a short distance away with its local shop, post office, school and pub and an active social and community life. Grundisburgh also has a doctors surgery.

The village hall and playing fields with playing area is also only a short distance away.

Agents Note

Tenure - Freehold

Council Tax Band - B

The stairway of the property leading up to the landing is positioned above the ground floor area of number 2 Brook Cottages as a flying freehold. This is common with regard to older cottages in Suffolk villages and we have seen this situation many times.
