Summary Continued

Parking is available immediately in front of the property and also on the green, where the deeds of the property show ownership in a triangle shape of the green outside to each of the properties. This means additional car parking is available there.

In the rear garden there is a brick built double storage building, plus a double sized timber shed and a rear access gate that leads to a footpath straight to the recreation ground and play area making this property ideal for anyone with young children etc.

The village of Hollesley has an active social scene and includes a primary school, a garage, village shop, church, village hall which has a whole host of activities throughout the week including Karate on Thursday nights. There is also seven minute drive to the delights of Shingle Street and Bawdsey with views over to Felixstowe Ferry and no more than a ten to fifteen minute interrupted drive into Woodbridge and a seven minute drive to Melton railway station.

Surrounding Hollesley is fantastic scenic countryside with Rendlesham Forest nearby. This is ideal for anyone who likes hiking, mountain biking, walking dogs etc in some of the most picturesque countryside in the whole of Suffolk, and there is also the Suffolk Punch Trust nearby as well. There are ample bridle paths around, perfect for anyone with horses.

The owner of the property is offering early vacant possession with no chain involved and can also leave if required at no extra cost the following two double beds, three chests of drawers, one cupboard, two tables 4 x dining room chairs, one sofa and two arm chairs, tumble dryer, cooker with a double oven, log burner even with own store of logs, dishwasher and a washing machine.

A family home in the most sought after location offered in excellent decorative order, new carpets replaced to majority of the rooms, including all three bedrooms, landing stairs, hallway, increased loft insulation with a depth of 300mm and there has been re-decoration carried out and this home is offered with no chain.

We are anticipating this property to be extremely popular, so an urgent internal viewing is highly advisable.
