A charming and characterful two-bedroom Grade II Listed cottage, nestled in a secluded spot just off Church Street in Bexhill's historic Old Town, directly opposite the picturesque St. Peter's Church. Dating back to the 19th century, this property is perfectly positioned within a short stroll of Manor Barn & Gardens, the Doctors Surgery, bus services, and Bexhill Town Centre, offering a variety of shops, restaurants, the iconic De La Warr Pavilion, the seafront, and the mainline railway station.

The accommodation features an inviting open-plan living room and kitchen, measuring 18'0 x 9'5, complete with a cozy wood-burning stove. From the inner hall, you'll find a stylish downstairs bathroom with a contemporary standalone roll-top bath. Upstairs, the first floor offers two well-proportioned bedrooms: a 12'5 x 9'7 master bedroom at the front and a 9'0 x 8'0 second bedroom at the rear.

Additional highlights include exposed beams, wooden flooring, gas-fired central heating, and traditional latched doors. Offered chain-free, this delightful period home is available for viewing by appointment only. There is no outside space with this property

Whether you're looking for a primary residence or a second/holiday home, this unique property is a must-see. Sole agents, Just Property.
