Detached Affordable Property in Idyllic Countryside Location.

This detached barn style property is currently utilised as an office with a reception room, kitchen, two office suites and a bathroom. The property has planning permission from January 2016 to allow use as a residential dwelling, offering a range of uses for this fantastic investment. The property benefits further from a large rear garden and parking.

Located in a rural setting at Black Barn Farm farmstead this property benefits from both the idyllic countryside and being close to local amenities at nearby Haddenham. This central area is ideally located between Oxford and Aylesbury and provides the perfect commuter base. Alternatively this property would be a lucrative investment for rental purposes.
