Located close to the main harbour in Bangor, Llafranc is a large five-bedroom property spread over two floors, with five of the bedrooms featuring double beds. This house has great communal kitchen with plenty of seating area, a fridge-freezer, washer/dryer and plenty of kitchen storage. There is also one full bathroom and additional WC on the first floor. On road parking is available with this home, but as the property is within 10/15 minutes walk away from Bangor's main high street and University buildings, you may find there is little need for a car.
