Situated in a great location in Upper Bangor, 34 Victoria Street is a lovely, modern four-bedroom home. Each of the bedrooms is carpeted and fully furnished with an array of storage furniture and a bed. The attic room contains two skylights, which illuminate the room with natural lighting. The open plan kitchen/living room is vibrant, spacious and makes for a perfect communal space. The kitchen has all the amenities you require, with a good amount of surface space for food preparation, an oven with hob, washing machine, tumble dryer, breakfast bar, stools and large fridge freezer. The living room has two leather sofas, shelving space and a coffee table to further enhance this social area. The contemporary bathroom includes a walk-in shower, toilet and sink with an additional WC also available. This property is located close to the main University building and all that Upper Bangor has to offer with a supermarket, shops, restaurants, and pubs all within close walking distance. All bills are included in the rental price.
